AEF SPRING DONATION DRIVE UPDATE

Great news! AEF received over $50,000 in donations for the spring donation drive. All schools that qualified for cashback will be notified soon. In addition, the raffle prize winners who will each receive $100 in Scrip gift card(s) will be notified as well.

Thank you for your generosity, kindness, and support. All donations will help support AUSD schools and students with outstanding educational programs such as Mini-Grants which enrich classroom curriculum and student learning, Naviance a college readiness program for K thru 12 students, counseling services that help K thru 12 students, School Messenger that enables the district to convey critical information and important announcements to parents and community members, and so much more.

AEF remains committed to helping AUSD bring academic excellence to every classroom. The foundation plays a critical role in funding and enhancing the educational experience of AUSD students through vital educational programs that otherwise would not be possible through traditional sources. AEF strives to close the gap between budgetary challenges and the needs of AUSD students in an increasingly competitive world. AEF hopes to bring the entire community together to build on this important and impactful endeavor. Please consider making a meaningful investment to support the efforts of AEF. Visit the AEF website to DONATE. Thank you!

DID YOU KNOW?

AEF AT THE ANNUAL PUBLIC SCHOOLS LUNCHEON

AEF Secretary, Luis Nagy, and Former AEF Vice President and Trustee, Kate Guo at the 53rd Annual Public Schools Luncheon on April 11, 2019. AEF congratulates and celebrates the AHS National Merit Scholars and the Classified and Certified Profiles in Excellence. Every year, the Public Schools Luncheon salutes the accomplishments of the Arcadia Unified School District (AUSD) students and staff.

AEF AT AHS SCHOOL BOARD LEARNING WALK

AEF President, Miguel Cea, First VP, Sheldon Wright, and Secretary, Luis Nagy attended the Arcadia High School School Board Learning Walk event on April 12, 2019. Various stakeholders in the Arcadia community were invited to hear about the collaboration of administrators and teachers to enhance the classroom experience. Student leaders took groups of attendees to various classrooms to observe the classroom experience. AEF is proud of the work that the Arcadia Unified administrators and teachers are doing to enrich the classroom experience for students. Arcadia High School has been named a U.S. News and World Report Gold Medal School three times, was named to the Newsweek “Top Public Schools in America” list, and was recognized by Niche as one of the top two percent of the best public high schools in California.

AEF MEMBER PROFILE – SELAM WONG, AEF ASSISTANT SECRETARY

I learned about the Arcadia Educational Foundation (AEF) through a friend from PTSA and have been involved with AEF since my first meeting in September 2016. My daughter attends Holly Avenue Elementary School, and my son is at Arcadia High School.

I have always been passionate about improving and offering the best education for children in the local school district.

I am honored to be a member of the AEF Board of Trustees because it offers me the opportunity to raise funds to provide the best educational experience for students of the Arcadia Unified School District (AUSD).

AEF BOARD MEETINGS

AEF board meetings are open to all. They take place on the third Tuesday of every month at the AEC Staff Development Room, 150 S Third Ave, Arcadia, at 7:30 pm.

If you are looking for a meaningful way to get involved in your child’s education, come join us and learn how you can make a meaningful difference.

Upcoming meeting dates: May 21, 2019; June 18, 2019
